

Leaning Toward Beloved Community

Dr. Mark A. Hicks

Angus MacLean Professor of Religious Education
Meadville Lombard Theological School (UU), Chicago

Our dream is clear: we want to create a world in which we tear down the walls that divide the human family. Yet we don't often have a place to 'practice' that behavior, so we get bogged down, often wallowing in shame, guilt and other yucky feelings.

This interactive and evocative workshop provides a fresh way of thinking about cross-cultural engagement through the lens of spiritual development. Come explore how we can engage our imperfect selves as we build a multi-racial, multicultural and theologically diverse community. Learn how to walk the talk.

Saturday 8 June 9am–5pm

Unitarian Universalist Church

3224 Navajo Drive, Chattanooga TN 37411

www.uucc.org/rgm • rgm@uucc.org

- limited space – $15 advance registration
- check only, payable to 'UUCC'
- light lunch included